Jazz on the Grove donates to American Red Cross & Gene Harris Endowment for Music Scholarship

(Boise, October 31 2005) The Downtown Boise Association announced today that $3,000 raised from “Jazz on the Grove” a signature event in Fall for Boise has been donated in equal amounts of $1,500 to the American Red Cross of Greater Idaho and the Gene Harris Endowment for Music Scholarship.

The event took place on the Grove Plaza Friday, September 9th with the Paul Tillotson Trio and Luther Hughes Cannonball Coltrane Project headlining the show. The evening is a signature event in “Fall for Boise”, the two-month celebration of Boise’s arts and community.

Co-title sponsors included KNIN-Channel 9 Television, Syringa Bank, and a number of other generous sponsors who contributed to the festivities. Jazz on the Grove is an opportunity to give thanks to our community for supporting and helping to maintain a thriving downtown area, and to raise awareness for music education. The 2006 event date is Friday, September 8th.
